With over 900 legal advisers and a network of 11 offices across the UK (Belfast, Birmingham, Edinburgh, Leeds, London, Manchester, Milton Keynes, Northampton, Nottingham, Southampton and Thames Valley), we deliver prompt, reliable and localised advice while also considering the wider national landscape.

WORKING WITH YOU

Clients of Shoosmiths find us quick to relate to their goals, and adept at advising on the most effective way of achieving them. Our legal advisers tailor their approach to each client's business, delivering high quality legal advice backed up by clear and open communication, cost transparency and business sense. Upfront cost estimates are always provided.

We aim to build long and successful relationships with our clients and become an extension of their team. We appoint a dedicated Shoosmiths' Client Partner to provide a single point of accountability for the client and they have overall responsibility for all aspects of the service including the quality of work delivered.
